

Floyd A. "Bunk" Leach 1987

FLOYD "BUNK" A. LEACH, JR.

"Bunk" was born and raised in the McAdoo Heights section of Greensboro, N.C. The favorite neighborhood hang-out was the Pop Marshburn Cafe where a lot of dancers got their start, hanging onto a pole, practicing their dance steps. "Bunk" learned his basic dance steps from another "Shagger", Lacy Moore, and won several dance contests in North and South Carolina during the fifties.

"Bunk" moved to Miami, Florida in 1957, returned to Greensboro to marry the former Shirley Campbell, also of Greensboro, in 1958. They returned to Miami and have been there ever since. They have one son who is eighteen and graduating from high school this year.

"Bunk has been an electrician for over twenty-five years and is currently serving on the Negotiating Committee for the IBEW, Local 349. He is a past president of Colonial Palms Men's Golf Association, as well as Redland Golf & Country Club Men's Association.